

ARTICLE 13 - CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

- 13.1 Board recognizes the right for the Association to consult with the Board's designee in regards to matters relating to the definition of educational objectives, determination of content of courses and curriculum and selection of textbooks. These matters will ultimately be decided by the Board whose decision is final and non-grievable.