

GUIDED READING ACTIVITY 13-4

Life During the Civil War

Directions: Answering Questions Reading the section and answering the questions below will help you learn more about life during the Civil War. Refer to your textbook to answer the questions.

1. About how many Union and Confederate soldiers deserted their armies?

---

---

2. What did Rebel soldiers lack that hindered them on and off the battlefields?

---

3. What happened to those in the South who lived in the paths of marching armies?

---

4. Which spy informed Confederate generals of Union army movements in the Shenandoah Valley?

---

5. Why did doctors initially not want women nurses?

---

6. What was the nickname given to the Peace Democrats, and why?

---

7. What did the Confederate Congress pass in April 1862 to deal with declining enlistments in the army?

---

8. What two ways could a person in the North avoid the draft?

---

9. Why is the Civil War called the first modern war?

---

10. Whose economy suffered more in the war?

---